

TO-DAY!

Works better with water than other brands do with milk.

10c The Pound.

MADE BY LAYTON PURE FOOD CO. EAST ST. LOUIS, ILL. ST. LOUIS, MO.

COUNTY NEWS

Mayview Notes.

W. H. White spent Thursday in Alma.

Misses Belles and Bullard were in Higginsville Monday.

Will Moore of Kansas City spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. Hale of Breckenridge, Mo., is visiting relatives and friends here.

Butler Moore left Monday to attend school at the Warrensburg Normal.

Mrs. Logan returned from a short visit in Higginsville Sunday evening.

Tom Moore of Portland, Mo., is visiting his children and parents here this week.

Rev. Buehler and daughter, Hulda, went to Higginsville Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Tarleton Belles and Mrs. Wm. Wilnot were shopping in Kansas City Tuesday.

Mrs. Tom Sanders spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Keith in Higginsville.

Meers, John and Will Moore spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moore.

Miss Bess Bradley spent several days with Lexington friends last week at attending the street fair.

Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Ryland of Lexington, spent Sunday here with Mrs. Ryland's father, Dr. John Perrie.

Maurice Jones, now traveling for Selmer Hess Publishing Company and located at Emporia was here Sunday.

Mrs. Bliss of Boulder, Col., who is visiting relatives in this state, is now spending a few days with Mrs. Eggleston in Lexington.

The Lafayette and Johnson County Baptist Association, which met last week at Pittsfield was attended by a number from this place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Graham are moving into their new residence on Main St. Their new home is very pretty, and will be an addition to the town.

The many friends of Mrs. Otto Little, formerly Myrtle Fennell of this place will regret to hear of Mr. Little's death, of typhoid fever, in Oklahoma recently.

The Mayview delegation report the Lexington street fair a success. Among those from Mayview were: Mrs. J. R. Smith, Mrs. T. B. Benning and mother, Misses Grace Smith, Bessie Bradley, Stella Kuchelov, Bess B. Chinn, Pearl Moore and Mennie Warren.

Mrs. Mary Logan of Kansas City, who has been spending the summer with her daughter, Mrs. T. B. Benning, returned Sunday after a short visit to friends in Higginsville.

D. F. W. Dailey is preparing to move to Kansas City, where he will open up a drug store and also practice medicine. Lou Dailey and mother of Higginsville will go with Dr. Dailey.

Mrs. Wright, nee Nell E. Harris, is now the mother of a sweet little daughter, Marion Louise. Mrs. Wright, who is now living in Creston, Ia., is well remembered here, having visited her aunt, Mrs. T. D. Hammonds many times.

Mr. Gore, the faithful and competent pastor of the Baptist church tendered his resignation to his church Sunday morning. Mr. Gore will take up evangelistic work in this district. Mr. Gore and his wife are a source of good, which is strongly felt here, and their departure will be regretted by all.

Corder Items.

Ben Hetter was in Higginsville Saturday.

Ike Ramey went to Kansas City Saturday.

Wm. Carlton was in Kansas City Sunday.

John W. Lewis was in Higginsville Monday.

Scott Zantmeyer was in Higginsville Monday.

Born, Sept. 19, to the wife of John Lee, a boy.

Walter Van Anglin and wife were in town Monday.

Ben Hetter had business in Kansas City Wednesday.

James Winn and wife of Dover were in town Wednesday.

Charley and Leon Lewis were in Higginsville Sunday.

Rev. N. H. McCain spent several days here visiting his wife.

M. V. B. Oliver and wife of Dover were here Wednesday.

Rev. Stuckeman, wife and son, Coral were in Higginsville Monday.

Mrs. J. T. Harwood and Mrs. Burns were in town Monday evening.

Frank Schultz and family spent Sunday with Wm. Rolf near Alma.

Mrs. Henry Johnson has opened up her millinery goods at her home.

Ed Armbruster had business in Independence several days last week.

Mrs. Dick Van Meter and Miss Adah Price were in Kansas City Saturday.

Mrs. C. J. Lewis and daughter, Miss Stella were in Higginsville Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank VanArsdale and children were in Higginsville Saturday.

Misses Edna and Nell Dean and Kate Brown were in Higginsville Saturday.

Dr. Milton McAlister of Nelson visited his brother, Dr. N. E. McAlister Sunday.

Mrs. J. Q. Morehead and Mrs. J. C. Frerking were in Higginsville Monday evening.

Wm. Anthony, the professional ball pitcher returned to his home in Sedalia Saturday.

R. L. Gaines, wife and Miss Emma Neil attended the Lexington street fair Saturday.

Wm. Riley and Hays Wolleeman attended the show in Higginsville Friday night.

The Corder high school and the Corder business men will cross bats here Sunday.

Earl Wood, wife and baby, Martha Sue returned to their home in Booneville Saturday.

The young people of Corder will meet Friday evening to organize a circulating library.

Mrs. Rose Tucker of Higginsville has moved her stock of goods into the annex of the Corder hotel.

Wm. Riley, accompanied by Misses Kate Brown and Edna Dean spent Thursday evening with Mrs. S. N. Fletcher.

Mrs. John W. Lewis entertained at dinner Sunday, Mesdames Kate and Mollie Lewis and family and Miss Stella Lewis.

Mrs. Charles Frerking and son, Homer and Mrs. J. H. Smith returned Sunday night from Neb., where they have been visiting for several weeks.

Mrs. S. N. Saunders entertained at dinner Thursday, Mrs. C. J. Lewis and daughter, Miss Stella, Mrs. John W. Lewis, Mrs. J. C. Frerking, Mrs. J. Q. Morehead, Mrs. H. W. Dean and Miss Helen.

Saturday morning while Miss Bess Knipmeyer, John and Phillip Smith were enroute to Higginsville the horse became frightened, ran away, over-

FALL-WINTER 1903

Fall is here now, and winter is coming. There will soon be a demand for warm things, good things, comfortable things. We have them in abundance. The best place to buy the best things is from the merchant who makes the keeping of them a specialty. Remember when you want sheets, pillow cases, quilts, comforts, blankets, etc., that here is the best place to get them. Come and see what we have and we will do the rest.

Pillow cases.....	10, 12½, 15 and 30 cents
Unbleached sheets.....	39 and 43 cents
Bleached sheets.....	39, 50, 60 and 70 cents
White counterpanes, each.....	75, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $2, $2.50 and $3.50
Shoddy filled bed comforts, each.....	75c, $1, and $1.25
Clean white cotton filled comforts.....	$1, 1.25, 1.35, 1.50, 1.75, 2.00, 2.50 $3
Cotton blankets, per pair.....	50c, 75c, $1, 1.25, 1.50, and 2.00
Shoddy blankets, per pair.....	$1, 1.25, 1.50, and 1.75
White wool blankets, per pair $2.88, 3.00, 3.50, 4, 5, 6, 6.50, 7.50 and 8.50
Colored wool blankets, per pair.....	$2.25, 2.50, 3, 3.50, 5, and 7.50

These are only a few of the good things we have. Call and we will show you others.

W. G. McCAUSLAND

turning the vehicle, damaging it quite badly, but fortunately the occupants and horse were not injured.

Miss Kate Brown returned to her home in Liberty Monday after a month's visit with the Misses Dean.

DOVER DOINGS.

The sick in and near town are all reported better.

George Zeysing had business in St. Louis this week.

Capt Zeysing had business in Lexington Wednesday.

Elder George Plattenburg made a visit to Marshall recently.

Prof. Storaadt of Marshall has been in town several days this week.

Rev. Baenbourg and family left this week for their new home in Southeast Mo.

Miss Minnie Pile of Stanhope is visiting her brother, Sam Pile and family this week.

Miss Elma Fisher of Kansas City is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. H. Rhinehart this week.

Miss Nellie Hitt of Marshall spent Sunday with the family of her uncle, Dr. R. L. Hitt.

Miss Maggie Ray left Thursday morning for a few days visit to relatives in Booneville.

Mrs. Hugh Winn of Arkansas is visiting Mr. Winn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Winn near town.

Mesdames Chas. Dysart, Capt. Littlejohn and Maria Cooper spent Thursday with Miss Bird Slusher.

Mr. Obe Stark, wife and little daughter, Gladys, came down from Kansas City last week and are guests of B. F. Stark and family.

Elder Stark of Warrensburg will preach at the Christian church Sunday morning and night, September 27th. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

WELLINGTON AND VICINITY.

(BY LEALMA)

Frederick Kreutz Sr. is still very sick.

William Bringer was in Kansas City Sunday.

Henry Garvin, colored, had a valuable cow tethered out to graze on the river bank near his house one day last week, when the animal became tangled in the rope and falling down a steep bank broke her neck.

W. T. Johnson had business in Kansas City Monday.

G. W. Alumbaugh and family were in Lexington Monday.

John Larkin was in Lexington on official business Monday.

John Kenick of near Oak Grove had business here Wednesday.

Miss Georgia Ragland was in Kansas City shopping Wednesday.

Joseph Mann and wife were visiting friends in Warrensburg, Saturday and Sunday.

James Caloway returned Saturday night from a trip through Southern California.

Mrs. G. A. Brauman left Wednesday evening for a visit to her mother, Mrs. E. N. Samuels in Kansas.

Miss Mattie Duck of Washington, D. C. arrived Tuesday for a two weeks visit with her sister Mrs. A. N. Woodward.

The case of J. D. Shewalter against Matt Graham for damages, has been taken to Higginsville on a change of venue.

The mule team that Henry Seitz was driving to Independence helping to move John Grunk's family to that place, became frightened and started to run and Seitz fell off of the wagon between the mule and was dragged some distance knocking him unconscious and badly cutting and bruising him about the head and face.

Saturday night a cow belonging to John Prock living in Egypt Bottoms, broke into the garden of Fritz Kreutzman who hearing the noise made by the cow and thinking someone was stealing corn, got his gun and fired in the direction from where the sound came, shooting and if not killing at least ruining the animal as a milch cow which was not only highly valuable for many good qualities, but was a present to Mr. Prock's wife. No action will be brought against Kreutzman until final results are learned.

Married.—In Marshall, Mo. Sept. 21, 1903, Francis Taylor and Mrs. Bessie Tibbett, both of Waverly.

Premiums Awarded.

STOCK SHOW PREMIUMS.

Best jack any age, Frank Stewart, pair trousers, Wittenberg & Gratz, $10.00.

Best pair mules, W. P. Cole, chamber set, Joseph Long, $10.00.

Mule 3 years old and over, Nell Todhunter, hat, S. Levin, $3.00.

Mule colt, under 1 year, Jas. F. Catron, whip and lap robe, C. W. Hays, $3.00.

Draft colt, under 1 year, B. F. Cox, boys' suit, Gratz Bros., $7.50.

Mule, 2 years and under 3, Lee J. Slusher, hat, H. Sinauer, $3.00.

Special premiums by F. C. Stewart for best two mule colts by his Jack, 1st $12.50, Daniel Hagan; 2nd $6.25, J. F. Catron.

Best harness mare or gelding, 3 years and over, Herbert Nover, set of dishes, Fredendall & Wilson, $10.00.

Best harness stallion, 3 years and over, Jas. F. Ramey, cash prize $500.

Best pair drivers, W. P. Cole, W. A. Edwards and J. J. Fulkerson cash $5.00.

Best colt under 1 year, (harness) Fred Young, 25 lbs stock food, E. B. Vaughan, $2.50.

Best stallion and 3 or more of his get, Claude Neer, 1st prize, H. Campbell and C. Tyree, cash, 5.00; Jas. F. Ramey 2nd, set tea spoons, A. Egle, $4.50.

Best draft stallion, any age, Frank Stewart, plate glass front door, W. S. Carter, $7.50.

Best draft mare, any age, George Looney 1st prize, set knives and forks, Frank Weis, 4.00; H. Kroech 2nd prize, box cigars, Hinesley, $2.50.

Special premium by Claude Neer, best suckling colt, H. Remne, $10.00.

Best saddle mare, three years and over, W. B. Emison, rug, Donle Weber, $4.00.

Best saddle stallion, three years and over, Frank Stewart, saddle and bridle, H. Schmidt, $12.00.

Best saddle animal, J. W. Barton, 1st prize $5.00; W. B. Emison 2nd $2.00, Pet Cole.

Best harness animal, Jas. F. Ramey, Judge Field cash $5.00.

Best colt, any breed or sex, under 1 year, Fred Young, 2,000 ex. shingles, J. R. Moorehead, $6.50.

Best all purpose mare or gelding, Charles Kinkad, rocking chair, Winkler Furniture Co., $4.00.

Best all purpose stallion, J. W. Barton 1st prize, hat, The Bee Hive, $3.50; B. F. Ridge 2nd prize, shoes, D. Stalling, $3.00.

Special premium for best draft colt, B. F. Cox, $2.50 by Walter B. Waddell.

POULTRY SHOW.

Ducks—W. H. Wade, 1st prize.

Brown Leghorn chickens—Mr. Isaac Huber, 1st prize.

Plymouth Rocks—Miss Mary Schaal Silver Laced Wyandotte—Mrs. W. H. Waddell, 1st prize.

Trio of Bantams—Miss Mary Schaal 1st prize.

White Turkeys—Miss Mary Schaal, 1st prize.

FLORAL HALL PREMIUMS.

In the floral hall the premium winners were:

Best 12 ears white corn, A. G. Young.

Best 12 ears yellow corn, J. L. Lyons.

Best collection of corn, H. Schutt.

Best display of canned fruit, Miss M. Schall.

Best and largest variety of preserves, Miss Lella Gordon.

Best and largest variety of jellies, Miss Drucilla Hackler.

Largest watermelon, John Lyons.

Best pickles, any kind, Mrs. Bettie Spurr.

Best display of peaches, G. W. Graham.

Best display of pears, F. Luehrman.

Best display of apples, Isaac Hulver.

Largest pumpkin, F. Freymiller.

Best bushel of wheat Mrs. B. Nover.

Best bushel Irish potatoes, G. Brumme.

Best bushel oats, Henry Schutt.

Best 2 lbs butter, Miss Virgie Igo.

Best sponge, white, chocolate, layer and collection of cakes, Miss Mattie Bradley.

Best angel food cake, Mrs. Frank Thornton.

These are all the premiums that have been awarded up to the time of going to press.

Below are the premiums awarded in the floral hall Friday:

Best display needle work, Mrs. W. A. Drysdale.

Best specimen silk embroidery, Mrs. John Welborn.

Handsomest table scarf, Miss May Peak.

Handsomest fancy apron, Miss

WINKLER FURNITURE COMPANY

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN FURNITURE.

ARE PREPARED TO DO ALL KINDS OF

Turning, Planing, Scroll Sawing, Etc.

We also keep constantly on hand

Stair Banisters, Newel Posts,

Walnut Coffins, &c.

Metallic and Wooden Burial Cases Always on hand.

They respectfully ask the attention of all to the articles of their manufacture, pledging themselves to sell as cheap as such articles can be bought.

Winkler Furniture Co.

Mayme Moore.

Handsomest home-made handkerchief, Mrs. Ed. Moorman.

Handsomest center piece and six dollies, Miss Leslie Bates.

Handsomest embroidered tray cloth, Mrs. Isabella Yingling.

Handsomest piece Mexican drawn work, Mrs. George Stier.

Handsomest specimen crocheted lace, Mrs. Joe Frazier.

Handsomest pillow sham, Miss Nannie Willett.

Handsomest specimen point lace, Miss Etta Anderson.

Best crocheted wool shawl, Miss Leslie Bates.

Handsomest petticoat, Miss Etta Anderson.

Best specimen of child's dress, Mrs. Bird Campbell.

Handsomest sofa cushion, Miss Marcia Sellers.

Handsomest duchess lace tie, Mrs. E. C. Hays.

Handsomest battenburg collar, Mrs. S. B. Thornton.

Handsomest point lace baby cap, Mrs. Isabella Yingling.

Best collection of lace, Mrs. John Welborn.

Handsomest quilt, Miss Della Crowder.

Best display pyrography, Mrs. Isy Gratz.

Best display of battenburg and point, Miss Bertie Duncan.

Handsomest collection of hand-painted china, Mrs. Ed. Moorman.

Indian Territory Lands.

Farms for rent at nominal yearly rentals. Missouri and Kansas tenants paying out all they make should investigate these new fertile lands in a climate where cattle and hogs may be raised at one-third their cost north of this favored country. Prices better, crops as bountiful. The future farming country of the world. Now and later these farms may be purchased at reasonable prices. Investigate.

MUSKOGEE INVESTMENT COMPANY, No. 703 Commerce Building, Kansas City, Mo. 9-2612

Farms Sold.

Talbot Simpson this week sold two farms of the Simpson estate near Corder at $75 per acre and one farm near his home place at Aullville at $75. He has several other choice places in the same localities for sale at reasonable prices.

Professor Melvin Resigns.

Professor Melvin, principal of the Waverly public schools resigned this week assigning as his reason the offer of a more remunerative and agreeable position. His resignation was accepted by the board.

W. S. CARTER

LUMBER

NINTH STREET

NEAR MAIN

MRS. H. W. WINSOR INSURANCE

Fire, Lightning and Tornado, Use and Occupancy, Farm, Grain and Live Stock; Farm Property Insured, Occupied by Tenant or Owner. Every Branch of Casualty Insurance, such as Plate Glass, Burglary, Steam Boiler, Accident and Health, Employers and Public Liability. Risks written in any town in the county.

Mrs. Winsor Solicits Your Business.

If you have anything to insure write or call at her office in Lexington, Mo.